1. Subject and Objective of the Thesis
   The subject of this thesis is the IPO in financial markets. The choice of this subject is very important because of the growing role of the Chinese financial market in global world. The objective of the thesis is the comparison of the selected initial public offerings. This objective is clearly defined and this thesis fulfils the stated objective.

2. Structure of the Thesis
   The bachelor thesis is divided into 5 chapters including introduction and conclusion. The structure of the study is organized very well, it is logical and it is in accordance with the thesis assignment.

   The theoretical part of the thesis is focused on the description of the role of the financial markets and its principles and functions. The second part includes explanation of the IPO – the definition, parts, its advantages and disadvantages and finally the description of the procedure of IPO.

   The core and the most important part of the thesis is the Chapter 4 Comparison of the IPO between Amazon and Alibaba Group, in which the author describes the selected IPOs and compares them and explains the correspondences and differences of these initial public offerings.

3. Formal Arrangement
   The formal arrangement of the study satisfies the requirements for the elaboration; the author generally can use correct formulations and the expressing is without serious mistakes. The references to the bibliography and the pictures and tables are used properly.

4. Question Proposal
   During the thesis defense I recommend to answer the following question:

   - Which of these two companies will you choose for investing?
5. General Comments

The thesis is worked out adequately and meets the demanded requirements. The thesis has a solid theoretical and practical basis and the author demonstrates knowledge of the problem and the ability to present the results.

The formal arrangement of the thesis is very good.

Overall the thesis is on a very good level and can be recommended for the defense.
