Student: Yanyu Xu
Supervisor: Ing. Kateřina Kořená, Ph.D.

1. Subject and Objective of the Thesis
   The subject of this thesis is the regulation of financial markets. The choice of this subject is very good because of the growing role of the importance of regulation in global financial markets. The objective of the thesis is the assessment of the regulation of global financial markets after 2007 financial crisis.
   This objective is defined clearly and accurately and it is possible to state that this thesis fulfils the stated objective.

2. Structure of the Thesis
   The bachelor thesis is divided into 5 chapters including introduction and conclusion. The structure of the study is in accordance with the thesis assignment but it should have been better interconnected.
   The theoretical part of the thesis is focused on the description of the regulation of the financial markets and its principles and functions. The second part includes explanation of the regulation of financial markets before financial crisis and the third part after financial crisis. The author clarifies the beginning of the regulation in financial markets and then describes the history of the regulation step by step till the nowadays situation.
   The thesis is focused on the description of the development of the regulation in the USA, the United Kingdom and China.

3. Formal Arrangement
   The formal arrangement of the thesis is good; the author generally can use correct formulations and her expressing is without serious mistakes. The references to the bibliography are used properly. The student should have used more tables and graphs for better orientation in the text.

4. Question Proposal
   During the thesis defense I recommend to answer the following question:

   • Why is financial market regulation important for the further development of the whole global financial markets?
5. General Comments

The thesis is understandable and meets the demanded requirements. The student tried to work with the effort and proved knowledge of this subject, but the thesis in general should have better elaborated and could have been more detailed. The structure of the thesis should have been better sorted out. The formal arrangement of the study is good.

Overall the thesis can be recommended for the defense.
