Report on Bachelor Thesis

Topic: Financial Analysis of Selected Company

Student: Xiaomin Li

Bachelor thesis of the student Xiaomin Li concentrates on traditional topic of financial management – financial analysis of a company. One of the primary objectives is identification of major changes in trends, and relationships and the investigation of the reasons underlying those changes, and so the area of the financial management is very important for company management and its decision – making. The topic of the bachelor thesis fully corresponds with the topics of bachelor thesis at the Department of Finance.

The aim of this thesis is assessment of financial health of CK Life Science from 2007 to 2011.

Bachelor thesis is divided into five main chapters, where first chapter is introduction, last chapter is conclusion, second chapter is theoretical and methodological, third chapter is descriptive and the chapter fourth is the application part.

Second chapter is concentrated on description of the financial analysis methods which will be applied in the fourth chapter. First, the author describes common-size analysis [vertical and horizontal], and then attention is paid to description of selected profitability, liquidity, solvency and activity financial ratios. Third chapter is able to divided into two parts. At first is overwrited CK Life Science – one of the largest company in the Asia. In the following part is described CK Life Science by common-size analysis.

The most important part of the bachelor thesis is the chapter fourth. Here, author made the financial analysis [ratios of liquidity, activity, solvency and profitability] of the CK Life Science over the period of 2007 - 2011. Results of methods are commented and presented in the tables and by graphs.

It is necessary to state, that comments should be better (comments are sometimes reduced on the description input data and results, author should try to explain more reasons for changes) and there are also a lot of grammatical mistakes in the text. It is also important to note that if a student started working earlier, the resulting level of the theses could be much higher. The main aim of this thesis has been fulfilled, although comment of results is incomplete and the author doesn’t respect the formal guidelines fully, the bachelor thesis can be recommended to defense.
